Personnel Board Requests $208 Across the Board Raise

The Personnel Board in one of fourteen articles submitted to the Board of Selectmen prior to the deadline Monday night recommended to the annual Town Meeting a raise to all Town employees of $208 "across the board."

The raise would amount to $4.00 per week and would total $89,000. In a press release to this paper, the Arlington Municipal Employees Association and the AFL-CIO, Local 680 stated:

"Originally the Union asked for a $260 raise and the Employees Association was to insert in the annual warrant a request for $312. Following a joint meeting of the two associations, with frank discussion on the Personnel Committee's recommendations, the joint meeting agreed to accept the Board's recommendation as a compromise measure in the best interest of the employees and of the Town."

At the same time the Board inserted six other articles involving amendments in classifications; and requests for funds; total amount requested in these articles $1281.

Requested is:
The raising by one grade of the classification of Supervisor Motor Equipment Repairs and the Building Maintenance Foreman, each at $165.

The changing of grade from MC8-AG's two General Public Works foremen, total $456.

Amendment in classification plan (change in grade) Assistant Town Clerk and Motor Equipment Operator of the School Department; total $186 and $157 respectively.

The Board also recommended that a new title, that of Assistant Collector, be established, total $152.

L. W. V. Honors Finance Bd., Late Town Clerk Golden

From a theoretical Arlington visit by Russian Deputy Mikoyan to a new indoor swimming pool for Arlington, a panel from the League of Women Voters answered questions of a 20 man citizen's group at a 10th anniversary party Tuesday evening at the Town Hall, with a tribute to the late Town Clerk James J. Golden, and an award to the Town Finance Committee as highlights of the evening.

First award of merit by the league to a citizen of Arlington went to the late Mr. Golden, although the award had been voted while Mr. Golden was still actively serving as Town Clerk. It was accepted by Mrs. Golden and Rev. John Golden, while other members of the family were present.

Choosing a group for meritorious award, the League presented a plaque to Mr. Kermit Strenz, chairman, while all of the members were introduced. J. Howard Hayes, long time member and former chairman of the board, expressed appreciation of the committee for the award.

17 Year Old Rescues Boy From Mystic

Quick thinking on the part of a neighbor brought about the rescue of a 13 yr. old Arlington youngster at 4:30 a.m. Monday.

Donato Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Webb, 6 Lake Shore drive, Arlington, was skating on Lower Mystic Lake at the foot of Beverly road, when the ice gave way and the boy found himself in the icy waters some distance from shore.

David Flaherty, 17, 354 Mystic street, heard the boy's cries and rushed to the scene. He jumped into the neck-deep water and exclaiming a hockey stick to the younger boy, pulled him to safety.

Young Webb's mother, meanwhile, phoned police from her home adjoining the lake where she witnessed the dramatic rescue.

Arlington police, the Town Manager, and the Fire Chief were at the scene along with the M-7 police. The boy skated home under his own power.

Candidates Night Set For February 5 At Library

School Committee Candidates Night, sponsored by the P.T.A. Council, will be held at the Junior Library Hall, February 5, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Milton Anderson, Chairman of the School Citizens Committee will serve as Moderator. The public is invited to attend this meeting when all may have the opportunity to become acquainted with the candidates. A question and answer period will be held at the end of a brief talk by each candidate.

League -

Mrs. Kenneth C. Spengler, president, welcomed the 300 citizens of Arlington who attended. Mrs. Rudolph Bruce, representing the Massachusetts League of Women Voters, was keynote, and Mr. Hugh McKinstry, President of the Massachusetts League also spoke briefly.

With Chairman of the Board of Selectmen Joseph P. Greeley as moderator, the 20 Citizens' Panel put 10 league panels through a grueling, sometimes amusing, and always interesting hour and a half question period. Town Manager Monahan started the questioning off, and with the audience providing the panel with added ammunition from time to time, the women were kept busy until Mr. Greeley finally came to their rescue as the deadline was reached.

The panel consisted of State Senator C. Eugene Farnham, Former State Tax Commissioner Joseph Healy, State Probation Officer Anthony DiNatale, Town Manager Edward C. Monahan, Vice-Chairman Arthur D. Saul of the Selectmen, Chairman Walter Coughlin of the Board of Assessors, Chairman of the School Committee John Morine, Chief of Police Albert E. Ryan, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Bert Roens, Chairman of the Arlington Development Commission William McMahon, Chairman of the Arlington Planning Board John Bruns, Jr., Manager Editor of the Arlington Advocate Leonard D. Wood, Arlington NEWS publisher James B. Dunbar, President of the Chamber of Commerce Robert Swanson, Secretary of the Brotherhood Committee David Govenar, Atty. Francis Keefe, Banker Edward Clark, Rev. John Heidt, Business Executive Edmund Frost, and Realtor Gordon Thompson.

CONVERT MIKOYAN

Members of the league who served on the various panels and provided the answers to some 30 questions were Mrs. McKinstry, Mrs. Gordon Thompson, Mrs. Kenneth Spengler, Mrs. Mark Bradford, Mrs. Edward Holland, Mrs. Joris Brinkerhoff, Mrs. G. Edward Wilkins, Mrs. George Blackwood, Miss Murdena Campbell, Mrs. Chester Protheroe, Mrs. Thomas Kenna, Jr., Mrs. Gordon Shillinglaw, Mrs. John Granlund, Mrs. Milton Anderson, Mrs. Raymond Yeaton, Mrs. Daniel Healy, Mr. James Daily, Mrs. Edmund Sullivan, Mrs. John Kossak, Mrs. David Ashton and Mrs. Donald Pett.

With Past Presidents Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Wilkins and Mr. Anderson assisting, the league executive cut a birthday cake commemorating the 10th anniversary of the founding of the local club.

When one panelist asked how the league would react if Mr. Mikoyan came to Arlington, the answer was "We'd listen to his story, then make up our mind. And we'd try to convert him." The league hadn't studied recreational facilities in the town, hadn't heard of a proposed new indoor swimming pool, and knew a lot about the Mystic river.

There was some vagueness about current policy on graduated income tax and the withholding tax, the members felt having State Senators enjoy a four year term along with the governor might be a good idea, and described their connections with the state and national organization. They thought separate tax bills to cover school expenses might be a good idea, described at some length their survey of Arlington business conditions, and were forced to pass on only two or three of the questions.

More Building Permits In 1958 Than Year Ago

Sixty-three more building permits were issued in Arlington in 1958 than was the case in 1957. According to a report from Town Manager Edward C. Monahan 446 permits were issued in 1958 as compared to 383 the previous year.

Wedge Encourages Record Vote

Russell D. Wedge, candidate for the office of Town Clerk, reports that he has filed hundreds more signatures than required to qualify and that his name will definitely be on the March ballot. In addition, Mr. Wedge states that he holds thousands of signatures of nomination papers, which were not filed, being unnecessary to certification.

What impressed Mr. Wedge and his supporters, when seeking signatures, was not the ease with which these were obtained, but rather, the enthusiasm and interest of the Arlington people in this office and in the qualifications of the man who will fill this post. Person after person indicated that this will not be an election to fill a Town post, but rather, a selection of a mature man, worthy to and willing to follow the example set by a much loved executive.

In analyzing this evidence of selection, Mr. Wedge feels that the ability to meet with and efficiently handle people is a prime factor. He further feels that his years of experience as an executive claims investigator and insurance broker has admirably trained him for such a service.

He feels a Town Clerk must be a fully cooperative, yet just, to the Town and to its citizenry. Mr. Wedge also feels his profession demands all of these qualities.

New residents of Arlington are urged by Mr. Wedge to register and all registered voters are encouraged by him, to make March 2, 1959, the day of the record vote.

Candidates -

$208 Raise -

Also recommended by the Board—that a separate salary schedule be set up for library personnel, (no pay increases).

Other articles inserted by the Board included one for a request to tighten up eligibility for sick leave; one for checking of sick leave records; one for granting of additional sick leave pay under extenuating circumstances; and one for tightening provisions for delegates going to veteran conventions.

The Board also inserted two articles relative to leave of absence with pay for permanent employees who are authorized to attend organization functions, and another relative to maternity leave of absence.

All articles if passed would go into effect in April.

Arlington Beats Somerville, Pair Tied For 3rd In MET

Arlington's relay team romped home far ahead of the Somerville team and thus gave Arlington its first meet win of the winter season in Division II of the Track Loop at the 101st Army, Saturday.

The Arlington team was a good 25 yards out front of the Somerville entry at the wire to pick up a 42-1-2-3-4-5 win. The victory put Arlington into a triple tie for second place with Natick and Somerville, but well behind the pacesetters, Belmont and Watertown, both undefeated in three meets.

In other meets, Saturday, Watertown rolled to its 23rd win in a row in Division II beating Natick 40-1-5 to 36-4-5 while Belmont romped over North Quincy 55-2-3 to 21-1-3 to keep pace with Watertown on the roof of Division II.

Arlington took six firsts including the relay in defeating Somerville.

Stan Hutchinson won the mile for Arlington in 4:56.5 seconds with Fred Strachan of Arlington finishing second and Roger Powers of Somerville third.

Paul Bicknell of Arlington won the 300 in 36.4 seconds while Harry Ameral of Arlington finished second and Gerry Harrington of Somerville third.

Pete Seery of Arlington copped the first spot in the 600 in 1:24.5 with George Gorman of Somerville finishing second and Frank Hrubl of Somerville third.

Ray Spinosa of Somerville won the shot with toss of 45 feet.

while Virgil Aiello of Somerville and Frank Hrubl of Somerville finished second and third respectively.

Gerald Garci took the 1000 in 2:39.8 while Arnold Rapucci of Arlington and Art Poole of Arlington finished second and third.

The high jump was won by John Radochia of Arlington, Dave Jones of Somerville and Gary Barlow of Somerville, all of whom jumped 5 feet 4 inches.

Alan Stanford of Somerville won the hurdles in 6.5 seconds with Bob Littlehald of Somerville finishing second and Paul Gustafson of Arlington third.

The 50 yard dash was won by Bob Golden of Arlington in six seconds with Bob Barletta of Somerville finishing second and John Martorelli of Somerville third.

GOAL PER PERIOD GIVES ARLINGTON 3-0 WIN OVER MEDFORD IN GBI TILT

Arlington high school's fighting hockey team rolled to its ninth victory in ten starts defeating Medford high school 3-0 at the Boston Arena Saturday. The win enabled the Arlington club to hold its three point lead in G.B.I. competition with only four games left in the current campaign.

Arlington scored a goal a period and further scoring was held down by the brilliant goal-tending efforts of Phil Thorman of Medford.

League-leading scorer Charlie Chisolm tallied the first marker for the locals at 9:59 of the initial canto with Collins and Aiken picking up assists.

Collins tallied the second marker at 1:50 of the second stanza with Chisolm drawing an assist, while Aiken netted the final marker at 4:33 of the final canto with Howell being credited with an assist.

Meanwhile, in other noteworthy events of the weekend, Cambridge Latin, unable to find the combination which made it such a powerful entry a year ago until recently took over undisputed possession of fourth place beating stubborn Rindge Tech 2-0 with a pair of markers in the closing minute of play. A tie here would have been the upset of the past decade, it seems since Rindge has scored but five goals all season and has not won a game.

In other games Melrose scored four goals in a big second period to hand Stoneham its second consecutive setback. The loss dropped the Stoneham club into fifth place.

In the other game of the weekend, Belmont snapped a long slump by belting Newton 5-2.

Blue Lines

Arlington's spot as the highest scoring team in the league was challenged by Melrose after Saturday's game as both clubs have scored 35 markers. Belmont is third with 32 goals scored. Lowest scoring team in the loop is Rindge with 5 markers.

Top defensive club in the league Cambridge Latin has allowed but 14 goals in ten games. Arlington has allowed but 16 and Melrose 17. Rindge has allowed the most, 43 and Newton the second highest number 34; Medford has allowed 30.

Tentative Approval Of Cut In Salary Of Town Clerk

Chairman of the Arlington Finance Committee Kermit Strong told this paper that tentative approval had been given in the Town Clerk's budget suggesting that the salary of the Clerk be somewhat lower than has previously been the case.

Under present existing conditions, the Town Clerk would receive $7,960 in the Clerk's budget and an additional $412 for his work at election and town meeting, a total of $8,372.

The tentative approval of the Finance Committee would lower the amount in the Clerk's budget to $7,088, thus lowering the total amount to be received by the Clerk to $7,500.

Support For Hurd For Town Clerk On Increase

Strongly supported by fraternal, civic and patriotic organizations, the announcement by his campaign committee that Selectman Franklin W. Hurd had launched his campaign for the office of Town Clerk last week, rallied many Arlingtonians to his candidacy within the past six days.

Mr. Hurd will have committees organized within two weeks in all sections of the town, and literature relative to his public service and background will be in the hands of every voter very soon.

"I have received a great deal of support," Selectman Hurd told the press yesterday. "Since I announced that I would conduct an active campaign for the office of Town Clerk. Many men and women have contacted me and asked how they could assist in my candidacy — a gesture of friendship that I will always cherish."

"The man who assumes the office of Town Clerk," Mr. Hurd continued, "should be one who possesses a keen knowledge of municipal affairs and has a practical background in town government participation. As a public official since 1950, I have worked on all phases of town government and finances. It is imperative that the electorate of Arlington select one who knows your town government structure, finances and problems — and I feel I possess all of the qualifications needed in the office of Town Clerk — and those qualifications are attested by my record of public service."

"It is essential that the people be served by a Town Clerk who has served with sincerity, integrity, courage and conviction. My voice has been heard while serving the people of Arlington, not alone at our 'open' public meetings of the Board of Selectmen, but also on Beacon Hill where matters of public interest pertaining to Arlington were in the process of legislation."

"As one of your Selectmen, I have served on the Middlesex County Selectmen's Association as an Executive Board Member, Vice President and Secretary, Treasurer. Recently, I was honored by the office of President. These men, representing adjacent towns, in selecting me to head up this organization, have given approbation to my performance in public office."

"Many townspeople have told me that they consider my record as Selectman one of accomplishment and effort directed in the interests of all. I look forward with confidence to serving you as your Town Clerk following the March elections."

Teachers To Take Part In Conference

Arlington teachers will participate in the Beginning Teachers Conference at Boston University, which will be held from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. January 31.

Miss Bertha Yeaton, Grade 1 teacher, of the Thompson school, and Miss Shirley Vedoe, principal of the Crosby school, will serve as hostesses and members of the hospitality committee.

Miss Mary O'Connell, a resident of Arlington and reading consultant in the Westwood school department will serve as a consultant to the Grade 1 panel.

Follow The Footsteps

Arlington is fortunate to have some businessmen who are not afraid to take a risk by going ahead with new projects which will be of much benefit to the other store owners and to the community as a whole.

Therefore, we applaud the latest steps taken by Herb Orent of Mason Shoe as he goes ahead to help develop Arlington Center into the fine shopping center that it eventually could become.

We applaud him a second time because he has gone ahead without definite assurance by vote of the Town that other renovations in the community will be completed.

He has taking steps on his own putting into action the words spoken by Town Manager Edward C. Monahan at the Chamber of Commerce last week, "Private industry goes forward on its own volition, Town government acts slowly."

Now that this step has been taken, it is to be hoped that others will follow in the footsteps of Mason's Shoe.

March Needed Here

Polio, both paralytic and non-paralytic, have been visitors to many sections of the country in the last three and one-half years, but have shunned New England in most instances.

However, this does not mean that the March of Dimes here is not needed.

Quite to the contrary. Hundreds of unfortunates stung by the epidemic of 1955 and others who have been among the minority hit since that time, and the many struck down by polio throughout the years still and will continue to need help for years to come—and they must depend on your contributions to the March of Dimes.

Middlesex County will give aid to more than 1000 polio victims with the funds obtained during the Mothers' March, Sunday.

Many of these victims are mothers of families who need special equipment to cook or sew. Some are fathers who need a chest respirator to keep alive. Others are able to earn a living at home with the aid of equipment such as wheelchairs and typewriters.

This year's polio drive comes to an end officially, Sunday. If you are among those who for one reason or another have not been able to contribute, you still have time. Don't miss this opportunity to help those who are unable to help themselves.

Note To Candidates

This paper will publish four times prior to Town Election, March 2.

In the past, news release and letters to the editor relating to candidates seeking office at such elections have been published right through to the issue of the paper, prior to election.

However, this year we feel that because of the large number of candidates seeking office it will be impossible to do this and therefore some sort of deadline must, of necessity, be placed on news concerning candidates for office.

Therefore, this paper will establish the policy of publishing news releases from all candidates through and including the issue of February 12. However, after that date, including the two issues of February 19 and February 26 only news releases accompanied by political advertising will be published.

Babson Discusses

STOCKS

(Exclusive NEWS Feature)

Babson Park, Mass. — The readers of this column really want to know whether stocks will go up further and, if so, how much further. The fact is that nobody knows and any answer is a mere guess. I, however, am absolutely unbiased in my answer. I have never accepted a commission for the sale of a share of stock or a bond, nor have I ever borrowed a penny!

MY PERSONAL INVESTMENTS

My personal holdings are now about one third in cash, one third in short-term bonds, and one third in a well-diversified list of common stocks. Therefore, whatever the market does is okay with me. Forgive the above personal reference; but I want to guarantee readers that this week's release is absolutely unbiased.

Moreover, I am not blaming brokers for usually being bullish. They have wages, rents, and private wire costs to pay; and they find that 80 per cent of their customers will trade only on the "up side." Therefore, they must be bullish or get out of the business. Magazine writers and radio news commentators know they can get their material accepted most readily by being bullish. Surely the bureaucrats in Washington know they can keep their jobs only by holding their tongues or by being optimists. I do not blame any of these; they must eat! I merely want my readers to take "with several grains of salt" what they hear and read today about the stock market outlook.

THE LAW OF CHANCE

Now, what do I know?—Many years ago I took a course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology which discussed "chance." This was later followed by studies in "Relativity" by Dr. Einstein. Briefly this law of chance means that nothing is fixed, or sure, or certain. Everything we do must be based upon guesses. The secret of health, happiness, and prosperity is to make the right guesses and then have the self-control and persistence to follow through on these guesses.

Now let us apply this law of chance to the stock market. There is no basis for any banker, broker, or financial writer to tell you that the stock market is definitely going up or going down. Honest, intelligent, and experienced investment advisors will tell you that the chances are 60-50, or 50-50, or 40-60, or 30-70 that the market is going up. They will not hedge or straddle; they can honestly be bullish or bearish. But they will talk in terms of chance and not be imperial.

WHAT ABOUT SPECIAL STOCKS?

I recently asked the president of one of America's ten largest companies why it is so difficult to get him to give an opinion on his own stock. He replied: "Because I know that for every buyer of my stock, there must be a seller. These buyers and sellers know little about my company, yet they determine the price of its stock. But this is not all. The stock goes up when the buyers are more anxious to buy than the sellers are to sell, and vice versa."

The above means that the price of an individual stock depends upon the impatience of the public to buy or to sell it. Impatience truly controls the price of every stock. The total average of this impatience determines the Dow-Jones Averages and all the other stock indexes. That is why no IBM or other machine can make a true forecast. Even accountants and statisticians are only morticians, exhuming and dissecting the past. They can only guess as to the moods of the people, which determine whether stocks are going up or down.

In order that readers may not think I am dodging or evading the main question. I will say that the chances are 60-40 that stocks will go down considerably in 1959. Hence, the chances are in favor of those with the patience to wait longer before buying stocks for profit.

From Beacon Hill

BY JAMES G. COLBERT
Former Boston Post Political Editor

It would be necessary to delve far back into political history to find any instance where a proposed new law of great importance was steamrollered along the legislative tracks with as much speed as was the withholding income tax bill.

The big Democratic majority in the House of Representatives enabled Governor Furcolo's agents to adopt a stronger and firmer attitude with balky Democratic legislators than would have been possible in other years.

That made it possible for Democratic leaders to invoke a more effective brand of party discipline than ever before witnessed on Beacon Hill.

A few reluctant or on-the-fence Democratic legislators in effect were told to fall in line and follow orders or face the prospect of finding themselves out in the cold when the time comes for dispensing patronage.

The result was that less than a small handful of House Democrats finally voted against the bill, notwithstanding the qualms and doubts many members must have felt about the measure.

Such a procedure is possible only when one party has so big a working majority that its leaders don't have to worry about two or three members who may stray from the reservation.

Speed Remarkable

The speed with which the withholding bill was whipped through the House was remarkable when it is realized that it represents a revolutionary change in the method of collecting State income taxes and that it will take a bite of some size out of the weekly pay envelopes of countless thousands of persons across the Commonwealth.

Eventual public reaction to the withholding bill probably will depend on whether it does what its advocate say it will do, namely to snare large numbers of tax-evaders who presently are allegedly avoiding the payment of their rightful income taxes to the Commonwealth.

If the State's income tax collections are improved and increased by bringing in those who are dodging their lawful obligations, the law will be justified in the eyes of persons who have been paying their taxes on the line.

But if events in the months ahead show that the expense of processing the withholding returns is not warranted by a greatly increased flow of revenue into the State treasury—if this proves to be merely an expensive one-year gimmick for meeting a financial crisis—then a widespread public disapproval is almost inevitable.

It could well be that some prominent public figures are risking their political futures on whether the figures a year from now show the withholding system to be a success or a failure.

That is a question which will be answered before the voters go to the polls for another State election. Figures on income tax collections and on the added expense created should reveal quite clearly who was right and who was wrong in the withholding tax dispute.

Potential Candidate

Former Representative Joseph D. Ward had not finished receiving congratulations on his victory in the fight for election as Secretary of State when political observers on Beacon Hill began labelling him as a potential candidate for Governor in 1960.

Ward undoubtedly is privately looking beyond the office he now holds and contemplating the possibility of bidding for higher honors, but whether he will be ready to strike upward in less than two years is something only time will determine.

One thing which made Ward's election as the new Secretary of State a little more dramatic was that he twice experienced the bitterness of defeat and disappointment in his endeavors to achieve State-wide office before feeling the satisfying thrill and glow of emerging a winner.

In 1956 he won a three-way battle for the endorsement of the Democratic State Convention for Attorney General but then was defeated by Edward J. McCormack, Jr., in the September primary.

Last year he again entered the Democratic pre-primary conclave as a contender for Attorney General but lost the endorsement to McCormack.

Two things caused Ward to gain added respect and prestige even in defeat.

Took Losses Manfully
One was that he took his losses in manful fashion and went back onto the political firing line to campaign for the Democratic candidate who had bested him.

The second was that Ward, although he was defeated in the 1956 primary after being endorsed at the convention, abided by the edict of the 1958 convention when he was a loser and did not carry his fight into the primary.

Ward would be a potent contender for almost any State-wide office. He has a pleasing personality, is a two-fisted campaigner and an excellent speaker.

One of the more colorful speeches of last fall's gubernatorial campaign was made appearing on television for Governor Furcolo.

Charles Gibbons had just finished talking, and Ward followed immediately after him on the same television channel.

Although Gibbons' speech actually had been taped in advance and the Republican standard-bearer was somewhere else in the State at the time, Ward discarded his own prepared address and put on an extremely convincing act of calling Gibbons back into the studio to hear his reply.

Ward's performance was so realistic that many watchers gained the impression that Gibbons was walking out the door as Ward was starting to talk.

Now that Ward is established as the Secretary of State for the next two years, the question arises as to what office State Treasurer John F. Kennedy will seek in 1960.

An impression exists at the State House that Kennedy, who cannot run for a fourth term as Treasurer, will be a candidate next year either for Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Secretary of State.

O'Neill or MacDonald

Unless Ward sets his sights on some other office in 1960, Kennedy will encounter stern opposition wherever he turns, for Ward should be pretty solidly entrenched by the time another year comes around, and he is one who knows to build his political fences.

Those legislators seeking the passage of a law which would make the action of a State convention final and would eliminate the September primary for candidates for State-wide office presumably have Kennedy in mind. He has never done well at conventions. In fact, he shunned the '58 conclave.

The present opinion among Democratic politicians is that their party's nominee for Governor in 1960 will be either Congressman Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., of Cambridge or Congressman Torbert H. MacDonald of Malden.

O'Neill, because of his contacts as a Congressman, as a former Speaker of the Massachusetts House, as a legislator, and as Governor Furcolo's campaign manager last fall, would be a tremendously strong candidate at a convention. As yet, however, he hasn't indicated any intention of running.

If O'Neill is a candidate, Ward probably would turn his attention elsewhere. If O'Neill and MacDonald both should decide to remain in Congress, Ward might well be projected to the forefront as a very prominent contender for the Governorship.

Ward's election as Secretary of State very definitely placed a new face high in the Democratic picture.

Menotomy Digest

The Town's bill from the Symmes hospital is $23,889.10 as compared to $29,276.17 a year ago.

At the same time, the bill from the Middlesex County Sanitarium is $48,726.51 this year as compared to $57,552.07 a year ago.

Application of Home Town Realty Inc., contemplating the laying out or locating and, constructing the street or way in the Town of Arlington designated as Teresa Circle was tentatively approved by the Board of Selectmen Monday night.

Arlington has done a fine job in paying its taxes as is noted elsewhere in this issue. The figure collected this year $8,588,860.81, a record, is just about double the collection figures of eight years ago.

From observation, Arlington's Finance Committee holds a fine, easy to follow, Open Meeting. These men certainly deserved the honor bestowed on them by the League of Women Voters this week. Certainly, the Town is fortunate to have such worthy men give of their time, and there is much time involved, for the good of the community.

About Open Meetings—
Meetings of the Town's boards Park Commissioners, etc., are by such as Selectmen, Assessors, Finance Committee, Personnel Board law open to the public and it is to be noted that some committees take up notes on the doors where the meetings are held stating that the meetings are open. The Board of Selectmen takes the entire agenda of the meeting prior to the start of the meeting.

Meanwhile, meetings of appointed committees such as school building committees or special committees appointed from time to time are not authorized to open their meetings to the public unless they so desire.

Some Town Committee such as the Board of Selectmen meet weekly at the same time, others such as the School Committee meet monthly, others meet once, twice or often as the need arises. Anyone desiring to know when or where a Board meets may find out at the Town Clerk's office where notices of all such meetings must by law be posted 24 hours prior to the meeting.

Within Town Limits

By Walt Moynihan

Surprise of the week was the filing of papers of Robert R. Baker, 235 Pheasant avenue as a Selectman candidate.

Another surprise is that no one was put up as a candidate to run against incumbent Moderator Lawrence Corcoran.

Incumbents are not receiving much opposition as far as number of candidates seeking office are concerned in this Town Election.

Other incumbents seeking re-election include Cooledge, Assessor, one opponent; and Coffey, Housing Authority, one opponent.

John Morine seeking re-election to the School Committee is the only other office-holder seeking re-election to the same post and he is opposed by seven candidates. However, in this case, three offices are open.

Nine are seeking the Town Clerk spot and five the Selectmen post where there are no incumbents.

This could be a big year as far as turnout at the polls is concerned. Early special registration sessions held Tuesday night show that 48 registered in a one and one-half hour period, while registration at the Town Hall is said to be active.

And who will withdraw? Candidates going as far as the filing stage of a campaign seldom withdraw. However, with the large number of candidates seeking office this year, withdrawals during the 24 hour period from 5 p.m. Monday to 5 p.m. Tuesday seems possible.

In the three contests where large numbers of candidates are seeking office the picture looks like this:

Town Clerk—at least seven will stay in the race.

School Committee—no withdrawals.

Selectmen—one withdrawal a possibility.

Question of the week? Where's the "Cherry Sheet"?

Our guess is that the Cherry Sheet will be late in arriving because of the possibility of extra returns to towns and cities should the tax bill in the Senate be passed.

Town Collections Total $8,588,860, New Record Set

Town Treasurer Francis A. Coughlin has informed the NEWS that collection credits for the Town of Arlington totaled $8,588,860.81 in 1958. This figure represents a new record, exceeding that of 1957 by slightly under half a million dollars.

"Of $5,865,858.00 committed by the Board of Assessors in real estate, personal property and poll taxes in 1958, the balance of those outstanding on December 31, 1958 was only $112,409.35" he stated. "This shows a collection percentage of 98.1 per cent - which is almost exactly that of 1957, the highest in recent years."

"Arlington citizens may be proud of their consistent record of prompt payment of taxes which has enabled the town to market its issues of municipal bonds and notes at very favorable interest rates", Coughlin noted.

Hits Parking Facilities In Heights Area

Town Manager Edward C. Monahan will look into a communication from Milton Duclos, Hoffman News, Arlington Heights, relative to poor parking facilities in the Heights.

Duclos in a letter to the Board of Selectmen advised that the enforcement of the one-hour parking would help parking in the shopping area.

He noted that some merchants parked all day on the avenue when they could park in the rear of the buildings.

Mr. Monahan will report back to the Board on the matter at a later date.

Revenue From Bond Investments Climbs

Town Treasurer Francis A. Coughlin reports that a reinvestment of $600,000.00 from the proceeds of the High School Additions and Reconstruction loan and other bond issues in U. S. Treasury bills matured this month earning an additional $3,990.00 for the Town.

This transaction brings the total receipts from investment of these funds to $9,739.20 since $5,749.20 was earned in this manner in 1958.

Investment of proceeds of bond issue is authorized by state law up to 80 per cent of the loan. Coughlin noted the advisability of such action 'since the Town is able to derive a substantial benefit from whatever amounts are to remain unspent for a time'.
